

1. 28 (naar verwachting zal het Verenigd Koninkrijk de Unie 31 oktober 2019 verlaten)
2. Yes, the customs territory is the territory to which the customs legislation applies and the VAT territory is the territory to which the VAT legislation applies. The customs area is bigger than the Vat area
3. Inner and outer borders
4. ministry of finance
5. 8, DAM, DSC, PAX, DAR, DEI, DGN, DRH, DBA
6. 'aankliktaken' are National tasks performed by one specific customs office (laboratory, Origin matters, Tariff specific matters).
7. Import duties, excise duties and consumption tax of alcohol-free drinks, import sales tax
8. VGEM-tasks (matters on safety, health, economy and environment)
9. binding tariff information, i.e. customs indicate which commodity code a product has
10. Binding origin information, i.e. customs determine the origin of a product
11. An Authorized Economic Operator, someone who is regarded as reliable by the standards of the Union
12. Fewer checks, resulting in time savings, faster processing of declarations, faster completion of procedures
13. Information already known to customs can be reused and simplifications can be granted faster
14. Detecting criminal offenses and launching informational investigations
15. Collecting Statistical Data
16. Chamber of Commerce
17. Regulations, directives and decisions
18. Regulations
19. raising the standard of living
 - a. ensure employment
 - b. steady growth of incomes
 - c. use of the world's natural resources
 - d. expanding production and trade
 - e. bridging the gap between rich and poor
20. solving issues related to value and nomenclature (classification) and harmonization of customs legislation
21. Switzerland, Norway, Liechtenstein and Iceland
22. The characteristics are
 - a. free movement of goods, services, capital and persons
 - b. no import duties for goods already in free movement of the Union
 - c. common foreign policy towards third countries (countries that are not members of the Union)
 - d. common rate of import duties
 - e. uniform customs legislation